DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENTS AND GENERAL RULES:

The Honor Guard competition is composed of three separate events.

- 1) The Team Inspection
- 2) The Posting of the Colors
- 3) Exhibition Phase

Preparation: Prior to the designated time for teams to begin the Team Inspection, teams will have an opportunity to assemble on a "ready line" before moving to the Inspection line. While on the ready line, members of the Honor Guard team may silently make one last inspection of their uniforms and equipment, to remove any lint, or dust and to straighten creases and gig lines, etc. At the appointed time, the Honor Guard Unit in competition shall move up to the Inspection Line and follow the instructions for competition.

- 1) Team Inspection: The Team Leader shall present the team for judging at the designated inspection location (the Inspection Line) at the proper time. The team shall fall-in on a single line at a full arms length dress right, and at "Attention". The team shall remain at attention until dismissed or otherwise told to do so by the judge. When the Team Leader is satisfied that his team is ready, he shall take his position in front of the team and inform the judge that the team is ready for inspection. Note: Judging begins when the Team Leader reports in to the judge for inspection. The Leader will then be inspected for neatness, cleanliness, and military bearing. The remaining team members will then be inspected for conformity to the leader's uniform. Members of the Honor Guard Unit will be randomly inspected at the judge's discretion in the Team Inspection. Equipment used in the "Posting of the Colors" or the Exhibition phase, does not have to be carried or worn during the inspection. All equipment worn or carried will be inspected.

When the judge comes to a member carrying a piece of equipment (rifle, sword, etc.) that member shall bring the equipment to a "Port Arms" or carry position. The equipment will also be judged, however, the equipment will not be taken from the honor guard member. The individual members are judged on neatness, cleanliness, and military bearing – plus the team as a unit, is judged for conformity, precision, straight lines, etc. The leader will be given instructions by the judges, whether to stand by or follow the judge during the inspection of the team. At the end of judging for the Team Inspection, the judge will instruct the team or leader that the judging is complete and to prepare his team for the Posting of the Colors.

- 2) Color Guard: When the inspection portion for each team is completed, the flags/equipment may be brought to the flag bearer/s by self supplied, non-participating members assisting each team. Not all team members are required to Post Colors but all team members must participate as guide on(s) or escorts. When the team has all equipment and is ready, the Team Leader shall notify the judge that the team is ready to Post the Colors. Judging begins in this event when the judge instructs the leader to begin. Each team will immediately begin the "Posting of the Colors." Each team will post a minimum of two colors (national, state, province, district, agency, or unit flag when appropriate).

Starting from the start location, the Team Leader shall lead the Color Guard Team through the following:

- A. The Team leader shall begin with "Color Guard, Forward March", and then with the use of either audible or silent commands, the team leader shall march the Color Guard to the designated posting area by following the pre-set path which may require turning movements. Colors will be posted facing Pennsylvania Ave.
- B. The Team Leader shall direct the Posting of the Colors in a manner, which may be done as elaborately or as simply as the team wishes. The Posting shall accomplish placing the national and (if applicable) the state, province, district, agency, or unit flags in fixed holders according to national tradition and facing in the pre-designated direction. Bi-standers are not considered audience to determine the direction of the colors, Pennsylvania Ave is the proper direction to post. The bearer/s will then return to the rank. (Personnel will be provided to hold the flags in place only after the flags are completely in their bases and released by the bearer. Teams will not be responsible for flags that are blown over as soon as the flag bearer has released the flag pole.)
- C. After posting the Colors, the team will march to the designated end point in a disciplined and professional manner, where the team leader shall audibly command, "Color Guard Halt".
- D. Two good references for proper protocol can be found at these web sites; <https://atiam.train.army.mil/soldierPortal/atia/adlsc/view/public/8390-1/fm/3-21.5/toc.htm> and <http://www.1stbattalion3rdmarines.com/Drill-Manual.htm>

The Color Guard may march or fall out and quietly move to the assembly area for the Exhibition Phase. Assisting non-participating members may retrieve the colors and any other equipment as soon as the team has come to a halt after posting and exiting.

- 3) Exhibition/Demonstration Phase: This phase will consist of a performance that all team members must participate in. The performance must last no more than Eight (8) minutes and teams that go over the time limit will receive demerits however, teams using less than 8 minutes will not be penalized. The event time will begin once the team's leader has his team assembled and gives an audible command to the judge(s) that the team is ready with in reasonable time, or when the judges give a time warning to begin due to time restraints. Teams will be restricted to the Exhibition Area (approx 75'x 50'). There will be no discharge of any firearm (for example, a rifle volley) however; the use of musical instruments will be acceptable. Teams need to provide any special equipment that will be used in this event. Operational support for sound controlling equipment (other) will be allowed and not considered part of the team; however, any live musical or other instrumental support will be deemed a member of the team and must participate in all phases.

Teams should take into consideration the positive impact their performance would have on the law enforcements image, patriotism, honor and memorializing of this profession. This phase is an opportunity for pomp and circumstance, snap and flare as it is viewed by the public.

Teams will be graded bases solely on the judge's discretion taking into account the following;

- Team Uniformity
- Choreography
- Difficulty
- General Protocol
- Patriotism
- Exceeding Time Limit = Lose of points

Team leaders must be prepared to give a quick overview of their routine to the judges before the performance to notify them of special movements, formations and directions of most movements.

Confirmation:

Teams will receive a confirmation notification email of the receipt of their online application within 48 hours. Teams that do not receive a confirmation should re-submit or contact the competition coordinator. Team start times will be posted on the web site approximately one week before the competition.
